Civic Learning Signature Question Syllabus Checklist

Included?	Syllabus Requirement
<input type="checkbox"/>	The full text of the Signature Question: “How do people understand and engage in community life?”
<input type="checkbox"/>	The definition of Civic Knowledge and Engagement from the USP Teaching Resources website: “Civic knowledge consists of an awareness and understanding of the various political and social processes that impact the nature and quality of life in local, state, national, or global communities. It also encompasses the cultivation of skills which may be useful in public life, like effective communication and ethical reasoning. Civic engagement means having an appreciation for and applying the values gained from civic knowledge in real world settings, directed at improving the quality of life in the communities of which one is a part. Civic knowledge and civic engagement emphasize learning, reflection, and action in order to create better communities.”
<input type="checkbox"/>	The course description must mention Civic Knowledge and/or Civic Engagement and include an explanation of the importance of the SQ to an incoming student
<input type="checkbox"/>	At least TWO of the expected course outcomes which are assessed and listed in the syllabus will be from the list of “Outcomes” offered by Caryn McTighe Musil. (See USP website on Teaching Resources: http://www.uwosh.edu/usp/for-faculty-and-staff/signature-questions/sq-civic-learning )
<input type="checkbox"/>	Instructors are encouraged to integrate civic learning fully into their course, but the minimum requirement for Quest III is that 30-50% of the learning goals, assignments, and assessments for the course pertain to civic knowledge and engagement
